

3/23/98

Dear Mr. Lennox,

Thank you for coming and showing us all your models and telling us about your self. I appreciated it because I build model rockets and I like to learn about space. I learned that space ships are taller than I thought and that almost none of the space shuttle is used again. I hope that none of your models broke on your way home.

Your friend,
Evan